

MEDIA ADVISORY**

Partnership Announcement Increases Cancer Services in Our Region.

Local fundraising organizations join forces in the fight against cancer!

OTTAWA, ON – MAY 7, 2007 – The Queensway Carleton Hospital Foundation and the Ottawa Regional Cancer Foundation invite you to join us as we officially announce a unique fundraising partnership to build capacity for cancer diagnosis and treatment in Eastern Ontario. In addition, a significant donation from the 2006 Weekend to End Breast Cancer will be made.

WHAT: Partnership Announcement – A first of its kind in the region

WHEN: Tuesday, May 8, 2007 at 10:00 a.m.

SPEAKERS: Rabbi Reuven Bulka, Chair – Ottawa Regional Cancer Foundation Courage Campaign Cabinet
Dan Greenberg, Director – Queensway Carleton Hospital Foundation
Linda Eagen, President and CEO, Ottawa Regional Cancer Foundation
Eric Dean, Executive Director, Queensway Carleton Hospital Foundation

WHERE: Queensway Carleton Hospital – A-2 Conference Room
(adjacent to Emergency Department and Tim Hortons)
3045 Baseline Road
Ottawa, Ontario K2H 8P4

-30-

The Ottawa Regional Cancer Foundation provides vital funding in support of prevention, awareness, diagnosis, treatment, research, and supportive and palliative care for residents in Eastern Ontario battling cancer – www.ottawacancer.ca

The Queensway Carleton Hospital Foundation works to enhance the Hospital's Mission to provide outstanding care and medical excellence to those who live and work in our community – www.qch.on.ca

Together, Queensway Carleton Hospital Foundation and the Ottawa Regional Cancer Foundation will work towards a common goal – to provide excellence in cancer care and treatment for our community.

CONTACT:

Shannon Gorman, Vice-President Communications
Ottawa Regional Cancer Foundation
(613) 719-9956 (cellular)